

	Name	Jagbir Singh Chauhan
	Designation	Assistant Director
	Education	M. A. (Economics)
	Specialization	Human Resource Planning, Socio-economic Survey at the grass-root level, Monitoring & Evaluation of Rural Development Programmes, Vocational & Training Programmes, Decentralized Planning Development Studies
	E-mail	jagbirchouhan@yahoo.com
	Phone (O)	+91-011-24697082, 011-27787086

Brief Academic/Professional Biography

Jagbir Singh Chauhan has a Masters Degree in Economics. He joined IAMR in 1993 and since then have worked in the Institute in different capacities. Before joining IAMR he worked at V.V. Giri National Labour Institute, Noida from June 1993 to December, 1993 and at the Institute for Resource Management and Economic Development, New Delhi from November 1988 to May 1993. His areas of research interest are human resource planning, Monitoring Evaluation of Rural Development Programmes, Vocational & Training Programmes, and Decentralized Planning Development Studies.

Research/Assignment/Project involved in

1. Involved in the field survey of the study on “Employment Growth, and Credit Constraints in MSME in India”.
2. Presently engaged as Estate Officer of IAMR Campus. The duties among other things include day to day supervision of infrastructure, administrative & logistic facilities of IAMR academic blocks, International Training Programmes, International Hostel, Mess, canteen, residential quarters etc. As Link Officer, He is coordinating with CPWD, DDA, MCD, other development departments of Delhi and Central Government.

Publications

Research Articles

1. Chauhan J. S. and Sant Lal Arora (1997), “Data requirement for the measurement of labour flexibility at the enterprise level”, proceedings on “Concept and Measurement of Labour Flexibility with special reference to organized sector in India, November”.
2. Chauhan, J. S. and U. S. Bhandari (2007), “Pattern of Rural Labour Migration: A Case Study of Three blocks of Ramanathapuram District of Tamil Nadu State” Manpower Journal, Vol. XLII, No.3, July-Sept. pp. 78-107.